in late 1997 indonesia s economy went into a tail spin culminating in social and political upheavals that saw soeharto s resignation in may 1998 and resulting in a succession of presidents as indonesia entered a period of democratization these events are well known even to casual observers but kees van dijk has penned a magnificent account of indonesia between 1997 and 2000 that fleshes out the story in rich detail and analysis the volume itself closes as the soon to be ousted president abdurrahman wahid is facing two major corruption collusion and nepotism korupsi kolusi and nepotisme or kkn scandals and the political forces are arraying against him the author has clearly sifted through a mountain of materials principally indonesian language newspaper sources to bring about an excellent chronicle at 621 pages this is quite a large book and one can only marvel at the way in which a vast array of sources have been combined despite its size and detail it is a thoroughly absorbing read especially if one is already familiar with the events and characters that set the stage for a political and social transformation the main substantive chapters of the book are supplemented by a large number of helpful appendices showing political parties cabinet line ups military leaders a glossary and so on

beginning to remember charts indonesia s turbulent decades of cultural repression and renewal amid the rise and fall of suharto s new order regime these cross disciplinary pieces illuminate indonesia s current efforts to reexamine and understand its past in order to shape new civic and cultural arrangements in 1998 reformasi brought a wave of relief and euphoria but suharto s removal did not dispel persistent corruption official secrecy and denial religious and ethnic violence and security policies leading to tragedy in east timor aceh and other regions but the reformasi did open up new possibilities for seeing the past what followed was a surge of discourse that challenged officially codified national history in mass media and publishing in public policy debate in the arts and in popular mobilization and politics this volume is an exploration of some of the expressions narratives and interpretations of the past found in indonesia today the authors illustrate ways in which the dissolution of the indonesian state s monopoly on history is now permitting new national local and individual accounts and representations of the past to emerge the book covers fields from performing arts and literature to anthropology history and transitional justice the book opens with goenawan mohamad s dramatic poem kali the first publication of this important work by one of indonesia s leading intellectuals which has become the libretto for an international opera production another chapter is a personal memoir by one of java s famous shadow play masters tristuti rachmadi for years imprisoned under the new order leading historian anthony reid commemorates the national struggle at the regional level while south african lawyer paul van zyl compares efforts in transitional justice in indonesia east timor and south africa alverdian explores how a distinct national character of maritime governance has influenced the nature of indonesia s aspiration to go beyond archipelagic towards a maritime nation through focusing on the intersection between the nation s political culture historical changes and geopolitical contexts which gave rise to the primacy of the theme of unity in the nation s discourse the main theme of this research is the three pillar framework of the tanah air concept which includes the political culture of persatuan nasional national unity the strategic culture of cakra manggilingan turning of the times from dark to golden periods and the geopolitical context of posisi silang dunia world crossroad position the findings of this publication indicate the dominant influence of javanese political culture philosophy values and traditions on the distinct character of indonesia s maritime orientation specifically javanese political philosophy and traditions within each pillar of tanah air have influenced continuity rather than change in the evolution of indonesia s maritime policy this book helps readers understand how the defining theme of unity in national political culture has shaped the evolution of indonesia s maritime policy from 1945 to 2019 it illustrates how the continuous influence of the theme of national unity as devised by the political elites through history has addressed the realities of the archipelago s geography and it is significant from both an academic and practical policy perspective a book designed for academics and the general public interested in gaining greater insight and knowledge on indonesia s maritime policy and maritime nation aspirations born with motor impairment sarwono kusumaatmadja grew up with low self esteem yet within this awkward shy boy lay a steely resolve to overcome his weaknesses it was this same resolve that propelled him to study at high school in the united kingdom thousands of miles from his native land navigating life on his own in the uk forged sarwono into an independent and resilient individual one who never flinched in the face of challenges but also one who never wanted to play the hero either his unique character and integrity acted like a magnet for opportunities back home in indonesia he was chosen to be chairman of the university student council of the bandung institute of technology even though he did not campaign for it and when he made it into the national parliament it was at the behest of the military he then became secretary general of Golkar the country s ruling party without having to pull any strings in taking on all the opportunities that came his way sarwono remained true to himself which later meant saying no to president soeharto when the latter tried to recruit him to be part of his inner circle in indonesia the events of 1st october 1965 were followed by a campaign to annihilate the communist party and its alleged sympathisers it resulted in the murder of an estimate of one million people a genocide that counts as one of the largest mass murders after wwii and the incarceration of another million many of them for a decade or more without any legal process this drive was justified and enabled by a propaganda campaign in which communists were painted as atheist hypersexual amoral and intent to destroy the nation to date the effects of this campaign are still felt and the victims are denied the right of association and freedom of speech this book presents the history of the genocide and propaganda campaign and the process towards the international people s tribunal on 1965 crimes against humanity in indonesia ipt 1965 which was held in november 2015 in the hague the netherlands the authors an indonesian human rights lawyer and a dutch academic examine this unique event which for the first time brings these crimes before an international court and its verdict they single out the campaign of hate propaganda as it provided the incitement to kill so many indonesians and why this propaganda campaign is effective to this day the first book on this topic it fills a significant gap in asian studies and genocide studies
